SETBACKS - SOLUTION

Nowadays, vessel's operations, demand swift and tailor-made solutions. Given the fact that, port time/turnaround is of critical importance, every additional minute in terms of delay, simply means, extra costs for all contractual parties. In addition to this, the volume of seaborne trade, in parallel to the increase of vessels and strict regulations, entail numerous of administrative tasks.

With regards to the supplied products on-board, specific and competent arrangements, are a necessity. Such arrangements, presuppose efficient and effective results on a daily basis. Hence, again, time is of the essence. As a consequence, delays bring to the picture additional unwanted costs and undesirable pressure, to all departments of the shipping company.

INCOMPETENT OPERATIONS =
EXTRA TIME
+ PRESSURE
+ EXTRA COST

This is exactly the point where Navides Hellas; an utmost ship chandler, comes into the picture. At Navides Hellas we fully perceive such setbacks. Our experience has showed that shipping operation's balance, is well maintained, when all parties involved, are firmly fixed, on a durable chain.
